OUR WESTMINSTER BUDGET.

CONDUCTED BY A. L. GOSSETT.

WESTMINSTER, November 23.—Misses Maggie and Ethel Cooper, two beautiful young ladies of Avalon, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Claude Little.

Ex-Sheriff M. B. Gaines, of Anderson, spent a few days here last week. He was the guest of Mr. Wm. Bibb.

Ground has been broken at the Shuttles and Hobbs factory for the erection of a warehouse. This building will be 40x100 feet.

Mr. W. C. Mason was in Atlanta Monday.

Mr. J. D. Hull, of Fort Madison, was visiting in Westminster Sunday and Monday.

The many friends of Mr. Sallo M. White, the beloved wife of Mr. R. F. White, formerly of Westminster, were shocked to hear of her untimely death, which occurred at their home in Greenville, S. C., on last Sunday morning, November 20th. Mrs. White arose Sunday morning and ate her breakfast, apparently in good health. Shortly before 10 o'clock she was stricken with something like apoplexy and died very suddenly. Death is said, to say the least, when an inmate of a happy home is taken, but it seems doubly sad if called away without any warning. Mrs. White's maiden name was Keene. She was Mr. White's second wife. They were married about twelve years ago and resided in Westminster until nearly three years ago, when they removed to Greenville. She was about thirty-eight years of age and leaves, besides her husband, two little children. Three grown young men and one young lady were present at the funeral of his brother. Mr. Brown was once pastor of the Seneca and Walhalla station (Methodist) and still holds the office of a war minister in the hearts of his former parishioners.

President Henry S. Hartzog, of Clemson College, was in town Saturday, returning from his home at Greenville, and one young lady who went to attend the funeral of his brother. Mr. Brown was once pastor of the Seneca and Walhalla station (Methodist) and still holds the office of a war minister in the hearts of his former parishioners.

A large congregation was present to hear the sermon of the Rev. W. S. Hamlin, at the Presbyterian church Sunday. Communion services followed the sermon.

Rev. W. T. Capers filled his usual appointment at the Episcopal church Sunday evening and remained in town a day or two of this week.

Mrs. W. A. Holland is spending a while in town.

A new little girl is a recent arrival at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren R. Davis.

Mr. J. H. Bryan, the popular day telegraph operator, has been taking a vacation, visiting Atlanta, Nashville and other places. He will probably make a tour of the Southern cities.

Mr. R. L. Howell, regular night operator, fills the place of Mr. J. H. Bryan.

Miss Mary Swann is teaching the Reader Book school, Seneca district, near home, and boarding with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Cox.

Mrs. James F. McCarney has joined her husband at Roswell, Ga.

Rainy weather interfered with the meeting of the Oconee-Walk Club on Thursday and the Students' Club on Friday.

Rev. W. S. Hamlin went to Liberty last week.

On account of bad weather Arbor Day exercises, which were to have been held at the Seneca High School last Friday, were postponed.

Miss Bessie Wilson has returned from a visit to Abbeville, Due West and Columbia.

Earle's Mills Dots.

EARLE'S Mills, November 21.—Miss Pearl Cleveland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cleveland, died at her home near here on the 12th instant. On the morning of the 14th, after appropriate funeral services by Rev. W. S. Hamlin, her remains were laid to rest in the Tennyville Baptist cemetery. To the bereaved we extend our heartfelt sympathies. As evidence of their mission, the short span of our dear young friend is abundant in bringing about the object for which her short career was intended.

A Child's Health

depends almost wholly on the mother's health. A sick mother can't properly care for her child's health. A sick mother's system bears a healthy child, but it isn't expected to be a healthy baby. The mother's appearance of health, but weak stamina. Maybe innate weakness will develop in after years. Every woman should be particularly careful of her health during the period of gestation, when the child is really a part of herself. During all this time, she should keep her body strong and pure and she should take proper precautions against her time of labor. For this purpose Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is prescribed. It has been used in thousands of cases, with the most gratifying results. It is a tonic to the whole body, but particularly to the organs distinctly feminine. It so prepares the system for childbirth, as to render it a painless. It cures all female troubles and promotes regularity.

Return Home.

RETURN, November 21.—Quite a number of friends and neighbors have gone or are going to the cotton mills on account of the low prices, viz: Mrs. Anna Elrod, to the Poe Mill, Greenville; Mr. S. M. Tannery and family and W. O. Tannery, Nowry; Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, of near Seneca, who is going to work for one of our farmers leaving their farms; Mr. Norton Cox grew a pumpkin vine this year that takes the cake. It measured 82 feet from root to the end of main vine.

Rev. C. L. Craig, of Pickens county, is moving to his farm at Bounty Land. We are glad to have such men come among us.

A good many people from Walhalla and Newry attended the Children's Day at Return on Sunday.

Mr. A. A. Williams is honored by having a young King in his family, who has been ruling for the past few days—infant of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. King. D. J. M.

RICHLAND, S. C., November 22.—After an absence of several weeks we again have a visit to friends and relatives in Georgia, has returned. Miss Jane Clark, of Georgia, is visiting Mrs. W. J. Compton and others.

Miss Stella Langston, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Grant, some weeks, will return to her home this week.

Dr. Moore's father is visiting him.

The funeral of the late Benjamin Thrasher was largely attended. He leaves a large family of little ones, who, with his wife, have the sympathies of all who know them.

Mrs. Chas. Grant, formerly a merchant in Fair Play, expects to take up his abode in Walhalla this week. His friends, while they will miss him, will miss a prosperous business and a pleasant residence.

Mrs. Stephen Marrett and Mr. J. M. Marrett spent Sunday and Monday in Walhalla.

Mr. Pickett, who returned after a short visit to his brother, has accepted a situation in Columbia, Ga. He writes that he is doing well.

Mr. Jos. Hubell, of the Earle's Mill neighborhood, has gone to Texas.

Master Charles Ballenger and Mr. Neil Sligh attended service at the Seneca Presbyterian church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mary Fennell and her daughter, Miss Nell, have recently summoned to Newberry by the severe illness of their kinsman, Mr. Jeff Powers.

Mr. E. J. Pickett seems to have attained some skill in marksmanship. We learn that he killed a forty square during his leisure moments last week. It would seem, too, that squirrels are in superabundance within his domain.

Mr. J. B. Gilliam, who has for several months been a student of the Hartwell High school, has returned to his home.

Thanksgiving Day is drawing near, and though we do not expect to observe the day with formal ceremonies, every one feels that

"Because of the yield of grain;
"This meet that the Lord of the harvest
Be thanked for His sun and rain."

W. H. HARRISON.

BEATS THE KLONDIKE.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Texas, has found a new value in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by coughing, and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. Trial bottles free at Mr. W. B. Bell's, Walhalla, W. J. Lunney's, Seneca, and H. B. Zimmerman's, Westminster, drug stores. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

Mr. W. Stokes Shoots the Wrong Negro.

GAFFNEY, November 21.—A most unfortunate shooting scrape took place here on last Saturday night about midnight. Mr. W. Stokes, of police of Gaston, N. C., accompanied by Mr. W. Stokes Sholar of the same place, came on the southbound vestibule in search of a negro who had a few days previously robbed a prominent white citizen of that town.

Mr. Sholar alighted from the train, went around to the back side to look out for the hunted person who he knew was a negro, whom he took to be his man, attempting to get on the train to steal a ride. He called the negro down. The negro came down and started to run. Mr. Sholar fired at him the shot penetrating the hip and bowel.

After becoming aware that he had shot the wrong man, Mr. Sholar assisted the wounded man as best he could, sending for Dr. S. B. Crawley, who is doing all he can to alleviate the suffering of the wounded man.

No one regrets the unfortunate affair more than Mr. Sholar himself, who immediately gave himself up to the sheriff and is now in jail awaiting the result of the negro's wounds, which it is thought will prove fatal.

Messrs. Butler & Osborne have been employed for the defense.

The entire army will be equipped with the Krag-Jorgensen rifle.
